

I am appalled at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Can't the public make up its mind based on substantive news, not smear fake documentaries?

sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This decision in no way serves the public interest, and the company's decision shows why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
